

Troop 828 Summer Camp 2007

Signup ends February 12!

This year we have selected Camp Rainey Mountain in Northeastern Georgia June 17 – 23 as our summer camp 2007 destination! Camp Rainey Mountain has both a base camp for merit badge opportunities and high adventure treks for scouts ages 13 as of 6/1/07.

Experienced scouts who have done high-adventure backpacking before also have the option of joining the troop on another summer camp opportunity at MOHAB (Montana High Adventure Base) July 8-14. Exceptions may be made at the scoutmaster's discretion. MOHAB participants will travel by plane and ground transportation. The cost is $400 for camp + transportation (approximately $650). Payment schedule TBD.

Camp	Cost
Camp Rainey Mountain (Base Camp)	$195/scout or $100/adult + transportation costs + optional MB fees + optional white water trip

Transportation:

The troop will arrange for transportation to Camp Rainey Mountain HA and Base camp as one. Those not traveling with the troop will be expected to be at the camp upon the troop's arrival and notify Joe Knierien, by March 19th. We'll be traveling by bus this year and the approximate transportation cost per person is $300. The final transportation cost still needs to be determined!

Adults:

All adults attending camp are required to complete Boy Scout Youth Protection Training (YPT) and Virtus Training. Please submit all training certification dates to Jim Collins! There are a number of activity options available for adults. Please check the program guide for more information. Adults planning to backpack are required to join the boys on the weekly conditioning hike!
